

GOSSIP.

—Yerges is the leading jeweler of the city.

—Fred Deischle was in Nelsonville Sunday.

—Rev Hatten was in Nelsonville last week.

—Gordon Armstrong returns to Delaware today.

—Gus Baird has returned from the Atlanta Exposition.

—Miss Amelia R. Stiers will return to Cincinnati this week.

—P. M. Smith was in Logan Thursday.—Nelsonville Ind.

—Miss Daisy, daughter of John T. Sanderson, is visiting friends in Columbus.

—Rev Rodill and family are entertaining Miss Ruth Jenkins, of Columbus, this week.

—Mrs Jesse Voris, after a pleasant visit with her parents at Shawnee, has returned home.

—Will Keynes gave banquet to a few of his friends, at Frank Kanode's Tuesday evening.

—Miss Irma B Wright, who has been indisposed for the past few days, is convalescing.

—Mrs. E. P. Armstrong and son attended the A. G. Fields minstrel show at Columbus Tuesday.

—Frank McBride, conductor on the Weston-Jackson belt line, Sunday with his mother in this city.

—Two of our young men attended the dance at Nelsonville Tuesday evening; their names are withheld by request.

—The L. & H. Ry is indebted to Dan Davis, of Haynes Post-office about $1000.00 for labor and material furnished.

—Christmas watermelons is a very unusual sight, but there was a wagon load of them on the streets of Atlanta Monday.

—Cap Friesner, Billy Ramsey and Clarence Warrick furnished the music for a dance at Nelsonville Tuesday evening.

—Mr and Mrs Fred Willige, who were called here by the serious illness of Mr Willige's mother, Mrs Jack Shaw, have returned to their home at Pomeroy.

—Detective Ralph Crawford, of Cincinnati, is at Victoria, Van Couver's Island, on the track of Z T Lewis, the Urtana bank forger.

—Ask for the Rand-McNally Railway Guide and enjoy its system of Accidental Insurance. A free policy in the Fidelity & Casualty Co., with each guide.

—The engagement of Miss Catherine Fuller, daughter of Chief Justice Fuller, and Mr Beecher, of Buffalo, has been announced.

—Mr. J. F. Beck returned to his business in Logan, Thursday morning, after spending Christmas with his mother on North Columbus st. this city.—Lancaster Dem.

—Two boys were before Squire Floyd, Tuesday, charged with breaking into a room under the Union Bank and taking property belonging to R O Kittmiller. They were bound over to court.

—Parents residing near the mail box at J O Tipton's should see that boys do not tamper or put old paper snails and rocks in the box, the penalty is $200.00 fine and six months imprisonment.

—Society girls who would like to imitate the first lady in the land will please take notice that Mrs. Cleveland with her own hand has made 50 pieces of clothing for the poor of Washington.

—John Canty, of Canty Bros., Insurance agts, wishes their many friends to call at their office as he can furnish blotters, calendars and blank books free of charge, school children are especially wanted.

—Lottie Killman, 23, is dying at Charity Hospital, Blackwell's Island New York City, from the cigarette habit. She has smoked at least 100,000 in her short career, and when removed to the hospital her face was swollen and yellow and the fingers of her right hand were a deep yellow. She not only has consumption, but also a severe case of nicotine poisoning, and will not recover.

—What Express Company operates over the New York Central? For answer see Rand-McNally Railway Guide; it is full of such information.

—The Directors of the Atlanta Exposition have decided to keep the big show open for 30 days longer, but at a meeting of the Directors, held Monday afternoon, this action was reconsidered and it was decided not to prolong the fair, but to close the gates Jan. 1st.

—John Downy is down from Columbus.

—Miss Anna Kintz is visiting in Shawnee.

—Miss Mable Hoyt is visiting in Lancaster.

—Leonard Weaver was in Logan Tuesday.

—Jim Hansen was seen on our streets Monday.

—The Central House sets the best table in town.

—T. R. Walburn has returned from Ironton.

—Homer G Hansel was seen on our streets Tuesday.

—C. E. Poston was in Nelsonville a few days last week.

—Joseph H Jackson, of Jobs, was up the first of the week.

—Edward Wade has returned from a visit to his sister, at Ada.

—Bertha Socia, of Nelsonville, is visiting Miss Maggie Lytle.

—Yerges the watchmaker, is still in business at the old stand.

—Ed Ward, of New Lexington, is visiting Chas Stedem this week.

—G. A. Newton, of New Straitsville, was in the city Saturday.

—Charley McLain and wife are visiting in Columbus this week.

—Sam Brooks was down from the Boys Industrial School yesterday.

—Rev J C Laughlin, of New Straitsville, was in the city yesterday.

—Mrs Lew McGill entertained the Pivian Sisters at her home Friday evening.

—John A Delp asks us to announce that he attended the dance at Nelsonville Tuesday.

—Mr L Yerges has been working day and night doing engraving for the Christmas trade.

—Miss Lucile Martin attended the grand New Year Ball at Columbus Tuesday evening.

—Mrs Mayne Rochester entertained with cards in honor of Miss Hattie Ford of Zanesville.

—Misses Maggie Kittmiller and Gusta Hamilton were visiting in New Straitsville last week.

—Wm Kelly leaves next week for Missouri where he has secured a good position.—Journal Gaz.

—Mr and Mrs Roman Brooker are visiting Mrs Brooker's sister Mrs John B Keller, at Lancaster.

—Capt and Mrs W. H. Huls, of Rockbridge, were down to see their son Gene, the musician, Monday.

—The members of the sewing circle held a watch meeting at the home of Miss Mayne Horn Tuesday eve.

—Travelers! Slippers! The Rand-McNally Railway Guide is the official guide don't fail to keep one on hand.

—Miss Anna Klienmidt, who has a position at the Athens Asylum, is entertaining her sister, Tena, of this city.

—The Twice Five Club met at the home of Marshall Harrington Monday evening. Subject, the Venezuelan question.

—Mr Nicholas Ebert and wife who have been spending the holidays with friends in Pittsburg, Pa., have returned home.

—$3 well spent; and a rebate of $2 in the form of a beautiful wall map of the United States. Subscribe for the Rand-McNally Railway Guide.

—We desire to heartily thank the ladies of the Christian Endeavor guild, and others, who so generously contributed presents to the children at the Children's Home. The presents were highly appreciated by the children.

—D. A. Engle, Supt. Mollie Sater, Matron.

—N. J. Weiland has a well selected stock of watches, clocks, silverware, gold and silver ornaments diamonds etc. suitable for Christmas presents.

—The officers of Mingo Lodge, No. 171, F. & A. M., were installed on Saturday evening by past master W H McClintock. The officers are as follows: Master, Frank Schlager, S. W., A. Magoun; J. W., Chas Keyner; S. D. E., E. Sands; J. S., Fred Pierce; Tyler, Chas Stiers.

—The lodge has received a copy of the grand lodge report, and District Lecturer, A B Mortal reports Mingo lodge the banner lodge of the 13th district, a fact of which the members of Mingo may well be proud.

—The laugh is on a farmer who resides near Enterprise. He prides himself on the regularity of feeding his live stock, especially his pigs. The other day he found he would be obliged to be away at the usual hour, so he told his wife to be careful and feed the pigs just at the stroke of 12. This advice was repeated several times before he started, and just as he drove off, his starting admonition was, "Remember the pig." His business took him to this city, and he had been here but a short time when a telegram was handed to him, and it read:

"Shall I feed the pig on standard or local time?" and the message as "collect."

—Tribby, at the Chestnut st. Theatre Jan. 13th.

—Joe Mattox of Nelsonville was in the city last week.

—James Harden, of Hesboro, was in the city Monday.

—John Brady spent a few days in Columbus last week.

—Ben Kittmiller, of Columbus, was in the city last week.

—Mr. Beany Kessler is visiting in Somerset and Bremen.

—Mrs. Chas. Brehm, of Columbus, visited in our city last week.

—Miss Estell Strentz is entertaining Miss Ford of Zanesville.

—John Schwarz spent last Monday and Tuesday in Columbus.

—Ed. Rectenwald has returned to his home at Charleston W. Va.

—Quite a crowd attended the Dazzler at Lancaster Tuesday evening.

—Mrs. E. O. Pettis is entertaining Mrs. Mary Deaver of McConnellsville.

—Sam Anker, of Oreville, was smiling on his friends here Tuesday.

—The Driven Away Dramatic Co. left Monday morning for McConnellsville.

—Sheriff Ryan has been very busy on account of the coming term of court.

—Master John Ward of New Lexington spent the Holidays in this city.

—Mr Charles Spencer of Adelphia was seen on the streets of Logan Saturday.

—Mr. Kost, of Columbus, was smiling on his lady friends in Logan, Tuesday.

—Ode Allen, formerly clerk at the Depot House, was seen on our streets Sunday.

—Mr. Cott, of Columbus, spent a few days in our city, the guest of Miss Lucy Martin.

—The Harmonica Club was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Bowlby Christmas.

—Messrs Will Simpson and Teddy Glenn, of Jackson, O., spent part of last week here.

—Miss Georgia Livingston, of Jackson, O., was the guest of relatives here last week.

—WANTED: The man with number 784 to call at Jess Van Horn's and get the watch.

—Dr. Hunt and family are visiting A. A. Juniper and wife on N. Walnut st. this week.

—J. C. Purcell, formerly of the Hocking Valley, is now employed on the C. & M. V. Ry.

—Hon. C. H. Beuhrhaus and Senator White were in New Straitsville on legal business, Tuesday.

—Grant Cleveland, who went to Chillicothe to work for the Nat. Gas Co. there, is again among us.

—Mrs. Geo. Tenny, of Richwood, spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Bowen of N. Market st.

—Alex Rochester and Harry Harrington have established a newspaper called the Story Teller.

—Married by Rev. W. H. Wright Wednesday, Dec. 25, Mr. Jonas Meldrim and Miss Lodi Crawford.

—Mr. Lucian Baker has returned to Columbus after a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Baker, of E. Hunter st.

—Mrs. Rev. W. H. Hickman, of Newark, is the guest of her father, Dr. G. W. Dollman, of West Main street.

—Willard Webb of Logan has accepted a position in the R. R. yards here.—Nelsonville Register.

—The Gilbert Opera Co. appear at Stuart's Opera House at Nelsonville. Why don't our manager secure them?

—Mr. James Allen, one of the prominent citizens of Hayneville, was in our city on Tuesday, and shed the light of his pleasant countenance in the SENTINEL office.

—John Wellman, of Logan, spent a few days last week in Outville with his mother Mrs. Audregg.—Lancaster Dem.

—Miss Sidney Stiers, of Logan is visiting Miss Adah Huber at her home near Pleasantville.—Lancaster Eagle.

—Mr and Mrs A B Gillet entertained yesterday, Mr and Mrs E T Mithoff of Columbus and Mr and Mrs Karl Burhaus of Logan.—Lan Eagle.

—A. M. Palmer's own New York City Co. will produce "Tribby" at the Chestnut st. Theatre, Lancaster Jan. 13th. Secure your tickets now Address Clara Martin McNeil, Lancaster O.

—War has broken out among the Republican officials of Logan county. On the 21st inst, Sheriff Sullivan and Commissioner Fergus had a scrimmage, during which the Commissioner threw the Sheriff bodily out of the Court House!

—What is the population of Pasadena? Oh, here is the Rand-McNally Guide—I will look it up. That book is full of valuable information.

—Bert McCormack has returned to Columbus.

—Mrs. David Whalen and son are visiting in Murry City.

—Mr. Tom Bennet and family spent last week at Star.

—Dan Engle of the Infirmary was seen in Logan, Monday.

—Mrs. H. L. Wright has been sick for the past few days.

—Judge Weitzel is in Memphis, Tenn., visiting his brother.

—W. J. Ryan made a business trip to Athens on Friday last.

—Mrs. L. J. Little entertained the Saturday Club on last Saturday.

—J. C. Campbell, of Rock House, was seen in Logan, Thursday.

—Masters Ed and Fred Campbell are visiting relatives in McArthur.

—Lulu Hooper, who has been visiting relatives for the past week returned home.

—Mr. and Mrs. Newt Slatzer and son Willie, spent a few days in Oreville this week.

—Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Neal returned home from Columbus last Saturday.

—Master Harry and Carl James returned home from a two weeks visit with their Grandparents.

—Rob. Kanode, who is in the cigar business in Columbus, was down last week visiting his family.

—Dr. Thomas Sweetston of Mt Pleasant was seen in our city, Monday last.

—John Williams, of Clearport, Fairfield county, was in Logan last Tuesday.

—All unsatisfactory work done by the Logan steam laundry will be re-laundried free of charge.

—Miss Marie Brook entertained a few of her friends at supper on Friday last.

—Mrs. D. J. Creasp, Mrs. J. B. Dollison and R. E. L. Creasp spent Christmas in Nelsonville.

—Mrs. Sam, Pickens, of McArthur, was the charming guest of Miss Maggie Deishle last week.

—Warry Gage, the well known hackman, was a visitor in the Capital city last week.

—John McBroom was visiting the family of Geo. B. Hughes, at Laurelville, last week.

—Gardner Buffington, who had a severe attack of lung fever, is now able to be around.

—Every business man should have it in his office, it is an invaluable companion—"The Rand McNally Railway Guide."

—The Geek Letter Fraternity was established by Marshall Harrington at his home corner Walnut and Hunter st., Friday evening.

—Will Morarity, who has been working in Nelsonville, spent Sunday at home with his mother on E Second st.

—Married, Mr. L. W. Powell of Nelsonville, and Miss Elida Davis of Greendale, by Rev. G. W. Deaver, Dec. 24th.

—Miss Maud Krinn, who has been in Columbus for sometime past, is visiting her father, Mr. Geo. W. Krinn.

—Fireman H. M. Butler, of Pom.eroy, moved here the first of the week. He occupies the Smith property, corner Spring and Hunter.

—Mrs. Dick Yent and daughter Mable, of Greenfield, are visiting Mrs. Yent's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Shempf, of West Main st.

—For the description of all important cities, time of all trains, population of all railway stations, etc., see the Rand-McNally Railway Guide.

—Miss Etta, daughter of Judge Friesner, spent Christmas with her grandmother, Mrs. H. E. Gallagher, of Gallagher Ave.

—William Davis, familiarly known as "Kid", and family came over from Logan to spend a few days among old acquaintances.—Laurelville Record.

—Ira J. Angle and wife of Columbus, accompanied by Miss Ida Jougnsmeier were visiting relatives in Logan this week.

—Miss Anna Hoyt, who has been visiting her brother Samuel Hoyt at Greenfield, returned home Tuesday.

—Hugh Moore came home Tuesday evening to visit his father Rev. D. R. Moore on North Market street.

—Justice Brewer, of the Supreme Court, has been tendered and has accepted a place on the Venezuelan Commission.

—Mr. and Mrs. Al. Brooke had as their guests last week, the Misses Nellie and Jessie Brooke and Mr. Roy Brooke. Mr. Brooke entertained a few friends in his honor at the Rempel House last Wednesday evening.

—As executor of the estate of J. W. Ball, Col. Seth Wells of Logan through his attorney William Davidson, of this city, has filed in the court of common pleas a petition whereby he seeks to recover the sum of nine hundred dollars on a promissory note from John D. Allen.—Lancaster Republican.

—Mr T R Hanes, of Columbus, is in the city.

—Mrs. Eversol and her charming daughter, of Huntington, W. Va., are the guests of Col. and Mrs. Purcell.

—Mrs. Anna E. Rainey has filed another petition in Common Pleas Court, praying for a divorce from her husband, Thomas F. Rainey.

—The plaintiff alleges gross neglect of duty, failure to provide and desertion H. C. Drinkle is the attorney for Mrs. Rainey.—Lancaster Republican.

—The McCarthy Farm was sold at Sheriff's sale on last Saturday, to Messrs Henry Trimmer and Henry Hensel, consideration $3734.00, being two-thirds of the appraisement.

—The Sheriff sold also on the same day, the Haynes farm on Salt Creek, 146 acres for $4000.00.

—Mrs. Robert Vanatta, after a long illness, died at her home in Logan on New Years morning. Her funeral will be held this afternoon at 1.30 p. m. An obituary will be published next week. The family have the sympathy of the entire community.

—Mr. Chas. Slugert, of the L. W. Washburn circus has accepted the management of the Chestnut st. theatre at Lancaster. He says he can take Logan people to Lancaster railroad fare and admission to opera included cheaper than we can see attractions in our own city.

—Mr Frank McGee of the Democrat Enquirer of McArthur is visiting Dr. L. C. Wright of S. Mulberry street.

—Any person bringing me a copy of my add from last weeks Sentinel can get one shirt laundered free of charge.

J C Arnold.

—Joe Sherr of Flagdale, was in the city today.

—Watch next week for advertisement of The Artist's weekly amusement paper published in New York City.

—The "Do You Know" column can be found on the 2nd page of this issue.

—The Big Four Whist club held a watch meeting Tuesday evening at the home of Sarah Engle on north Walnut st.

—The Bob-o-link's presented their Director, Fr Powers, with a hand some Rocking Chair on New Years. The presentation speech was in Bird language, a song.

—The many friends of Charley Kinlie, in Logan, will be glad to learn that he has been promoted to Sergeant on the Columbus Police force.

—Keep your eye on the Union Bank Windows, for the bills of the great Browne show at the Grand Opera House, Columbus Jan. 6, 7, & 8th.

—The uncalled for letters remaining in the Logan Post Office are addressed to W C Bryan, Wes Coakley, W E Musk, Mary L. Holliday, Geo Miller (2), Henry Miller, L. D. Palmer, E Y Dougherty and Mrs E T Morris.

—Mr Peter Sells and wife, of Columbus, spent Sunday in this city with Mrs Sells parents Mr and Mrs. John Luker on North Mulberry st.

—C. B. Jefferson, Klaw and Erlanger's mammoth production of "Palmer Cox's Brownies" the Greatest spectacle in the world, will be at the Grand Opera House, in Columbus, Jan. 6th, 7th, and 8th, with a Matinee, Wednesday, Jan. 8th. The production is on a scale of such magnitude that it only can be represented on the stages of the largest theatres throughout the country. The engagement at the Grand Opera House in Columbus, which is limited to three nights and one matinee only, will furnish to our people their only opportunity to witness the most wonderful spectacle that has ever yet been produced. Such thrilling climaxes as a storm and a shipwreck at sea, an earthquake and a volcano, and the instant destruction of a palace.

—The Pan-Hellenic Club held its inaugural symposium Friday evening at the home of Marshall Harrington. The program of toasts was as follows: Toastmaster—Hon. S. H. Bright, Delta Tau Delta.

—"The Fraternity Ideal," Hon. V. C. Lowery, Phi Delta Theta.

—"The Silvery Greys," Col W S Friesner, Alpha Digamma.

—"The Goat," H R Harrington, Phi Gamma Delta.

—"The Mother of Fraternities," Rev D R Moore, D. D., Alpha Delta Phi.

—"The Pan-Hellenic," H L Wright, Zeta Psi.

—"The Fraternity Girl," H J Woodworth, Beta Theta Pi.

The officers and members are as follows: President, S H Bright, Delta Tau Delta; vice president, H J Woodworth, Beta Theta Pi; secretary, M Harrington, Phi Gamma Delta. Members: Nelson Armstrong, V C Lowery, Fred Bright and G N Armstrong, Phi Delta Theta; F C Rochester, Sigma Chi; Dr I C Wright, Beta Theta Pi; W J Risley, Delta Tau Delta; S C Bright and H R Harrington, Phi Gamma Delta; John Henderson, Alpha Tau Omega; Rev D R Moore, Alpha Delta Phi; W S Friesner, Alpha Digamma; Dr J H Dye, Delta Upsilon, H L Wright, Zeta Psi.

A WAR WITH ENGLAND

would cost a mint of money but 5 CENTS WILL BUY A POUND

of Good CANDIES at A. C. TIPTON'S.

We have an immense stock, and are selling at prices never before named. Call and see us,
A. C. TIPTON.
East Main St. Logan, Ohio

—From what we heard on the street the leap year dance was a success.

—Oil operators from St. Mary's are preparing to put down a test well at Millville.

—Thad Allen says the Logan daily journal will make its appearance in a few days.

—Mrs Kate Woods, of Columbus, came down to spend New Years with her father, Capt Wm M. Bowen, of N. High st.

—Miss Jennie Ryan, of Athens, is visiting her sister, Mrs John F White, on N Walnut st.

—Mr. Arthur Bowers, of Montpelier, Vt., is the guest of Mr. Ferdie Rempel and wife.

—The interchangeable mileage ticket issued by the Ohio Central lines covers all the important railway systems in the territory of the Central traffic association and is now the leader. Every traveler should have one. It is an ever ready ticket for Columbus, Toledo, Cincinnati, Charleston, W. Va., Cleveland, Pittsburgh, Buffalo, Chicago, St. Louis, Louisville, etc. It costs but $20 and can be used any time within one year. It reduces your traveling expenses just 33 1/3 percent and is a money saver. There are very few persons, especially business men who do not travel in a year's time, at least 1000 miles. Get one without delay. There are others in the market but the Ohio Central lines' ticket is the favorite. See agents of Ohio Central lines, or address Moulton Houk, G. P. A. Toledo, O.

—The Shubert Concert Co. gave a very pleasant entertainment at the Opera House on last Thursday evening, under the auspices of the High School Library Association. The evening was inclement, but